SEA TIGER

SEA TIGER was the weekly news paper for III MAF (Marine Amphibious Force) in Vietnam. The newspaper got its name from the Vietnamese words, “Cop Bien,” which mean, “the Marines who came ashore from the sea to fight like tigers on their shores.” The first issue was published on 10 November 1965 and the last issue on 14 April 1971. A special issue, dated 13 September 1990, was published to mark the 25th anniversary of the Da Nang Combat Information Bureau.

(This collection consists of 285 issues. It is not complete.)
